Natasha Horn joined Finch, Thornton & Baird, LLP in 2009 and provides civil procedure expertise and case management support to her assigned team of attorneys. This includes the reliable execution of filings in state and district courts and the California Courts of Appeal, maintenance of legal calendars, and case tracking through all phases of litigation. In addition to managing and implementing trial preparation tasks, Natasha is experienced in coordinating arbitration and mediation.

As one of the firm's longest tenured paralegals, Natasha is a willing mentor and go-to resource. Always direct, but quick with a welcoming smile, Ms. Horn freely shares her knowledge and experience with anyone eager to learn and develop their professional competence.

Prior to joining this firm, Natasha gained experience in both family law and estate planning. She has worked in the legal field since 2005 and earned her paralegal certificate from University of San Diego in 2008.
